SNOWFLAKE QUILLING CARD

Saturday, November 7

Noon-2:00pm

If you took Robin's last class or if you would like to learn this technique, you won't want to miss this class. Focusing on twirling paper, you will make a beautiful snowflake that you can either hang on your tree or in a window or mount on a card. Supply list required - pick one up when you sign up or we will email it to you if you sign up by phone or email. Check out this Sunday's "What Happening this Week" to see a picture of this incredible snowflake. Robin. $20.

2ND SATURDAY ART WALK

Saturday, November 14

4-7 pm

Creating Lasting Memories will be joining the other downtown merchants for the November 2nd Saturday Art Walk. Our featured artist will be Ruth Moody. Ruth is one of our favorite scrapbook teachers. She loves to work with beginners and show them how to get started in this most rewarding hobby. Her layouts are simple, focusing on the photos. Ruth will be present to explain the basics of design, color and embellishments. Refreshments will be served. Invite a friend and stop by to say hi.

CUSTOMER APPRECIATION DAYS

Friday, November 27 -

Thursday December 4

It's November and I am thankful to the Lord for lots of things and one of those is you, my loyal customers. So beginning the Friday after Thanksgiving, there will be one full week of Customer Appreciation Days featuring special sales, daily prize drawings, tasty refreshments & some fun make 'n takes. For more information, be sure and read the "What's Happening This Week" email from Creating Lasting Memories for the week of November 23rd and November 30th.

CLM Blog

In November, our blog will feature additional Christmas card ideas for you to try, complete with instructions. All the supplies to make these cards will be available at the store. To access the blog, go to www.clmemories.com and then click on the "blog" tab at the top right.
